

2011 Civil Rights Conference

for the District of Connecticut

The United States Attorney's Office for the District of Connecticut, in partnership with the Civil Rights Division of the United States Department of Justice, is hosting its first-ever Civil Rights Conference to bring together individuals in our community to embark on a civil rights enforcement initiative. The conference is open to community and law enforcement members interested in civil rights issues.

Quinnipiac University
School of Law
Hamden CT
March 16, 2011
8:30am-5:30pm

Speakers include: AAG for Civil Rights
Thomas E. Perez, and Ambassador at Large to Monitor Human Trafficking Lou deBaca

Topics: Human Trafficking, Hate Crimes,
Disability Rights, Voting Rights, Fair Housing,
Fair Credit, Excessive Force and Police
Misconduct, and Veterans Rights

If you are interested in attending, fill out the registration form and email it to usact.vns@usdoj.gov by March 1, 2011.

You will receive an email confirming your registration and providing you with important conference information. For additional information, contact: Linda Corrado at the United States Attorney's Office (203) 821-3700.

Note: Continental breakfast and light refreshments will be served. The Quinnipiac cafeteria will be open for lunch.